General Civil and Criminal Litigation; Insurance Defense, Coverage & Subrogation; Torts; Personal Injury; Negligence; Product Liability; Appeals; Mediation & Arbitration; Wills & Estates; Contract Disputes; Business Law; Corporations & Limited Liability Companies; ERISA Benefits Litigation; Tax Disputes

Biography: George has extensive experience in general civil and criminal law issues and disputes. He developed his knowledge of insurance defense issues through his employment as an underwriter for The Maryland Casualty Company while attending the evening program at the University of Maryland Law School. After graduating from law school, George served as a Clerk for Judge Albert Sklar of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City. He has been actively involved in insurance defense, subrogation and personal injury litigation since he joined this firm in 1982 and has successfully tried thousands of cases in the Circuit and District Courts of Maryland and the United States District Court for the District of Maryland.

In addition to his extensive litigation practice, George is experienced in the areas of mediation and arbitration, wills and estates, and small business corporations and LLC's. He has been appointed as a mediator for the Circuit Courts for Baltimore City, Baltimore County and Howard County and also performs private mediations or arbitrations.

More recently, George's practice areas have broadened into the field of ERISA benefits and tax disputes and litigation. He has helped employees and retired individuals obtain profit sharing, pensions, 401(k) and other benefits wrongfully withheld from them by their employers or former employers. He also handles problems concerning IRS and state tax disputes.
