General Civil Litigation; Insurance Defense, Coverage & Subrogation; Torts; Personal Injury; Negligence; Product Liability; Contract Disputes; Business Tort Litigation

Biography: Matt practices in all areas of civil litigation, with an emphasis on insurance defense. Past and present clients include national insurance companies, private companies and quasi-public entities. Areas of practice include insurance defense, contract disputes, business tort litigation, and practice before public utility commissions. He has extensive courtroom experience, having litigated hundreds of cases in the both State and Federal Courts. He particularly enjoys the challenges and rigors of a jury trial, where he can apply his thorough knowledge of the Rules of Evidence and oral advocacy skills.

He received a BS Degree from Miami University of Ohio and a JD Degree from the University of Toledo School of Law, where he graduated with honors. He is admitted to practice in the State and Federal Courts for both the District of Columbia and State of Maryland.
